Hobe Sound Polo Club is a world class club designed, built and operated by polo players. Located just minutes from the beautiful beaches of South Florida's Treasure Coast. Hobe Sound Polo Club is an intimate community of 20 acre estates dedicated to those who are passionate about the game of polo.

• Five Championship Fields • Two Stick and Ball Fields • Track • Clubhouse • Miles of Bridle Paths • Connected to Thousands of Acres in Atlantic Ridge State Park

Above, Bob Whitley and Heather Weisz. Bob Whitley told us that the Hobe Sound project had received its one to last permit approval Thursday a week ago, and that the final go ahead would be received in 30 days, adding that the Club polo fields would be open in January 2009. Below are Amy and Mike Azzaro. (ph Frederic Roy)

"As a Professional athlete, I want to thank Dr. Cabanellas and the Staff at The Wellington Institute for Wellness for helping me optimize my physical performance to keep competing at the highest level."
